For one-off donations:

We use Virgin Money as one way to manage donations. This not-for-profit organisation takes a modest 2% of donations to cover their costs. You can visit our Virgin Money page here.

New ways of improving the lives of the deaf children

Mulago School for the Deaf in Kampala

The parents of the two children who are sponsored by us to attend this school are too poor to afford the cost of travelling from their remote village in Jinja District to Kampala to visit their children at three outdoor events over the summer: at the fete of the Nursery of our chairperson's son in June; at a church fete in Hackney in July; and at a Devon regatta in August. It poured with rain at the events in June and August but at the event in July the sun shone so strongly that we ran out of sun hats to sell!

Paralympics - Uganda: April 2012

Deaf children from Walukuba West Primary School in Jinja took part in "paralympic games" in Kampala in April 2013.

The games were opened by a band procession through the streets of Kampala, in which the school. We have therefore started to pay for the parents to travel to attend the school's open day, which is called "Visitation Day". Some of the pupils are pictured above signing.

Walukuba West Primary School in Jinja District

We have started to pay for Irene, the talented girl whose boarding fees we pay, to lodge with a teacher during the holidays. Irene and a day pupil, Gawole, are the only two deaf children this year who are in the top grade of primary school. We are now paying for them to receive sign language support from Yazidi, our sign language instructor, during the holidays, so that by studying in the holidays they can improve their chances of doing well enough in the leaving exam to progress to secondary school next year.

children from Walukuba West participated, raising public awareness about the prevalence of children with disabilities. The theme of the games was “empowering Ugandan children with disabilities through sports”.

Dates for your diary!

Our Secretary Joanna is giving an evening party with drinks, snacks and buffet supper at her home, 10 Alwyne Square, N1 2JX, for friends, neighbours and Jinja D.E.A.F. supporters. Some items will be for sale in aid of Jinja D.E.A.F. – including Ugandan and English crafts, Joanna’s paintings and Catherine Brighty’s stationery. This year a modest charge will be made for drinks and refreshments and Joanna will donate the proceeds to Jinja D.E.A.F.

If the children gain entry to secondary school, we shall offer to pay their fees. This would be a new step, because we have not sponsored secondary pupils before. Irene and Gawole both come from very poor backgrounds and both Irene’s parents are deceased, so neither child could take up a secondary school place without sponsorship. We hope that education will enable these impoverished deaf children to become better able to support themselves and their families in the future.
